

Public call for "Investing in Adult Education: The Foundation for a Successful Society"

In order to raise awareness about the importance of investing in adult education as the foundation of a successful society, DVV International – Country Office Bosnia and Herzegovina, in cooperation with partners: Center for Education and Research Nahla, Center for the Promotion of Civil Society (CPCD), Amica Educa and Aldi Association, organizes and invites you to a symposium entitled "Investing in Adult Education: The Foundation for a Successful Society", which will be held on November 13, 2024 at the Bosnian Cultural Center in Sarajevo.

General objective of the symposium:

The symposium is designed as a catalyst for the advancement of adult education, providing an opportunity for key stakeholders to consider current challenges and opportunities in this sector. The event will serve as a platform for the exchange of experiences, discussion of global and European practices, and drawing conclusions on the priorities for the development of adult education in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Key topics of the symposium:

- Financing adult education in BiH and overview
- European experiences in financing adult education
- National and local challenges in adult education
- Cooperation and sources of support for further planning and development

Featured speaker:

The symposium will be moderated by Prof. Dr. Katarina Popović, an expert in the field of adult education, Secretary General of the International Council for Adult Education (ICAE) and professor at the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade.

We invite all interested parties to join us in this unique event, where we will jointly explore new perspectives in adult education and lay the foundations for a successful society that focuses on learning and development.

Application deadline: please confirm your attendance by November 11, 2024 at the latest via email info@dvv-international.ba. The symposium program will be sent to all registered participants.

We look forward to your arrival!
